

College of Liberal Arts
National Taiwan University

Newsletter

<https://international.liberal.ntu.edu.tw>

✧ No. 204 ✧
August 2022

- ✧ July 1 The Memorial to Prof. Cheng-Hung Lin was held.
- ✧ July 5 Three students of the College were awarded Bachelor's Thesis Award: Tzu-Yen Huang of the Department of History received President's Award; Hao Chang of the Department of Chinese Literature, and Pei-Luo Hung of the Department of Library and Information Science received Dean's Award.
- ✧ July 5 Professor Emeritus Wei-Jan Chi of the Department of Drama and Theatre received "The 2022 Best Translated Mystery Fiction Award" in Japan and "The 2022 Maltese Falcon Award" for the novel Private Eyes.

4 faculty members were granted NTU Distinguished Teaching Awards (link) and 36 faculty members were granted NTU Outstanding Teaching Awards (link) for the 2021/2022 academic year.
- ✧ July 20 The third meeting of the College Evaluation Advisory Committee of the 2021/2022 academic year was convened online.
- ✧ July 21 Prof. Huei-Mian Li and 51 other faculty members were awarded Merit Pay for the 2022/2023 academic year.
- ✧ July 28 The extended service applications of Prof. Tung Shen of the Graduate Institute of Musicology were approved by the University Faculty Evaluation Committee.
- ✧ July 29 Prof. Ann A. Pang-White, Chair of the Philosophy Department at the University of Scranton, visited the College.
- ✧ July 31 The following professors finished the term of office:
Prof. Su-Ching Chang: Chair of Department of Chinese Literature;
Prof. Hsin-Ying Li: Chair of Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures;
Prof. Chi-Shiou Lin: Chair of Department of Library and Information Science;
Associate Prof. Li-Ping Chang: Director of the Graduate Program of Teaching Chinese as a Second Language;
Associate Prof. Li-May Sung: Director of Language Center.
- ✧ July 31 The 2022 Spring semester ended.