

College of Liberal Arts
National Taiwan University

Newsletter

<https://international.liberal.ntu.edu.tw>

≈ No. 206 ≈
October 2022

- ❁ September 1 Chung-Chieh Lee, retired professor of the Department of History, received “The Order of the Rising Sun, Gold Rays with Neck Ribbon” from the Japanese government.
- ❁ September 5 Hui-Chuan Chang, professor of the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, retired from the College.
- ❁ September 5 Eight students were awarded the Elite Doctoral Scholarship:

Chih-Yin Chieh of the Department of Chinese Literature, Jennifer Lynn Munoz of the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, Fang-Shuo Huang of the Department of History, and Kun-Lin Chang of the Graduate Institute of Art History were awarded Royal Palm Elite Doctoral Scholarship.

Chia-Chi Hsu of the Department of Philosophy, Wen-Chieh Lin of the Department of Anthropology, Chung-Ching Chen of the Graduate Institute of Musicology, and Chi-Han Lin of the Graduate Institute of Taiwan Literature, were awarded Diligent Doctoral Scholarship.
- ❁ September 12 The first concert for the semester was held at the Odeum of NTU Center for the Arts (No. 249 College of Liberal Arts Concert, PIPA-ensemble).
- ❁ September 14 The Collegiate Administrative Meeting was convened.
- ❁ September 21 The 2022 Tang Prize Masters’ Forum for Sinology was held at the International Conference Hall, Institute of Applied Mechanics. The laureate Professor Dame Jessica Rawson was invited to speak on the topic of “Bronze, Jade and Gold: The Language of Objects and Their Context”.
- ❁ September 23 A party for the retired faculty was held.
- ❁ September 30 The second concert for the semester was held at the lobby (No. 250 College of Liberal Arts Concert, Choice & Joy).