

College of Liberal Arts
National Taiwan University

Newsletter

<http://liberal.ntu.edu.tw/>

∞ No.203 ∞
July 2022

- ❁ June 1            The beam-raising ceremony for the Humanities Building of the College was held.
- ❁ June 3            Dragon Boat Festival.
- ❁ June 8            Collegiate Affairs Committee was convened online.
- ❁ June 9            The meeting of the Evaluation Committee for the Distinguished Professorship and the Ad Hoc Committee on Merit Pay for Teachers and Researchers was convened.
- ❁ June 9            The third concert in the 2021/2022 Spring semester was held online (No. 248 College of Liberal Arts Concert, Myanmar Music and Dance).
- ❁ June 14           The extended service applications of the following professors were approved by the University Faculty Evaluation Committee:
Prof. Fu-Chang Hsu and Prof. Shu-Chuan Tsao of the Department of Chinese Literature, Prof. Su-Hsien Yang and Prof. Wan-Yao Chou of the Department of History, Prof. Hsien-Chung Lee of the Department of Philosophy, and Prof. I-Wen Su of the Graduate Institute of Linguistics.
- ❁ June 20-22        The ACCL 2022 Biennial Meeting: Literature and the Sea was held by the Department of Chinese Literature, the ACCL and the Taiwanese Society for the Study of Chinese Literature and Culture. Prof. Carlos Rojas of Duke University, Prof. Ying-che Huang of Aichi University and Prof. David Wang of Harvard University were invited as keynotes speakers.
- ❁ June 22            The second meeting of College Evaluation Advisory Committee of the 2021/2022 academic year was convened online.
- ❁ June 23            Prof. Yu-yu Cheng of the Department of Chinese Literature and Prof. Jo-shui Chen of the Department of History were appointed NTU Chair Professors.
- ❁ June 27            Prof. Jo-shui Chen of the Department of History was appointed Fu Ssu-Nien Memorial Chair Professor.

- ✿ June 29 Four students were awarded 2021 MOST College Student Research Creativity Awards:
Po-jen Yang, Department of Chinese Literature;
Tzu-heng Chen, Department of Chinese Literature;
Tzu-yen Huang, Department of History;
Yu-chieh Chen, Department of History.
- ✿ June 29 Executive Officer Chao Chen retired from the College.
- ✿ June 30 Two faculty members were appointed Distinguished Professors:
Prof. José Eugenio Borao Mateo, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures; Prof. Ying-fen Wang, Graduate Institute of Musicology.